

Taiwan Union Technology Corporation

April 23, 2009

TUC Victorious in Court Case

Taiwan Union Technology Corporation (“TUC”) is pleased to announce that the Taiwan Intellectual Property Court rejected Isola USA Corporation’s (“Isola”) appeal on March 30, 2009. The Court had previously denied Isola’s application for a preliminary injunction on January 15, 2009. Declaring that there is no finding of infringement, the Judge officially closed the case to further appeal or action.

The civil complaint filed by TUC against Isola in the Taiwan Intellectual Property Court on January 19, 2009 claiming damages resulting from Isola’s false accusations and harassment remains outstanding.

TUC was established in 1974 and became a publicly traded company in 2003. TUC is a leader in its field and supplies materials to esteemed PCB manufacturers worldwide. To serve its customers, TUC invests heavily in research and development to ensure that TUC’s products deliver unparalleled value. For more information, please visit www.tuc.com.tw.

Taiwan Union Technology Corporation